About Me

Born and brought up in Bengaluru. Entered the world 21 years ago. Been a prankster my whole life. My concentration is more on the present than the future. More of a listener than a speaker. I am a person who can produce better on the system than on paper. I'm very work-driven and focused on delivering my best. My potential skills are illustrating, photography, photo-editing & video editing. My aim for the future is to work on my editing skills and coding knowledge.
